Years may dim our recollections;

Time its change may bring;

Still thy name in fond affection,

Shaker High we sing.

Scholarship key winners Claire Heiss and Howie Filston chat after receiving their awards, presented to seniors with a 4.5 or better average.

Whether in victory or defeat, Shakerites were always on hand to encourage the team.

Social Council representatives Bob Alfred, Ann Sherby, Marnie McKee, Walter Freedman and Harry Hottenbach warm themselves by the Social Room fireplace, which was lit for the first time this year.

The Gristmill this year is focusing its attention upon important events and highlights that you will want to remember, and in recapturing these memories we are incorporating an entirely new feature—a picture foreward. And so, to you Shakerites we dedicate the 1954 Gristmill.

What goes on that we don't know ... each Shaker dance is organized by two co-chairmen who serve as co-ordinators and six committees that take care of all details. Planning first starts about three weeks ahead of the scheduled affair. As zero hour approaches, students work at an increasingly fast and furious pace; on Saturday mornings the girls' gym is filled with people, some concerned with decorating, some concerned with last minute planning details, and always a few concerned with nothing more than looking on. The results of the efforts of all the co-chairmen and committee members were represented in the success of the 1953-54 social season.

the story behind shaker dances

The morning after the night before.

Hello, Judy?

a date with judy

... in which we follow Tam Friedman and Judy Himmelman, a Typical Shaker Boy and Girl, through a Saturday night date at the Leader's Club Dance.

Goodnight!

Why, yes, I'd love to go.

Oh, not too short.

I'll have a hamburger and a shake.

We'll have to hurry to beat my curfew

Next time I'll buy a clip-on.

How many girls have you told that to?

Aren't the decorations beautiful!

Hurry! There's the doorbell!

Janice Armstrong and Sherry Bassett are neck and neck coming into the home stretch as they do the bunny hop at the Y-Teen Harvest Hop.

of our classroom accomplishments

Even though we Shakerites are on easy-going, free-wheeling lat, once in classes we work hard and earnestly. A curriculum, ranging far and wide through all types of courses, provides the knowledge and teaches the basic skills that enable us to advance successfully into whatever we choose. More than a thousand students are now taking advantage of these facilities.

To keep pace with the modern trends and concepts of education, our school during the past years has instituted a number of new and constructive courses designed to round out the education of Shokerites in all possible ways. Some of these courses are typing, shorthand, driver education, foods and clothing, and the commercial and industrial courses.

the limelight on shakerites in their off moments

Eight times during the day our school's halls resound with noises as Shakerites came and go, as they spill in and out of classes, as they move into the cafeteria to eat, and as they gather together in twa's and three's to discuss their all-important daily trials and tribulations. And long after we have forgotten much of our school learning, the memories of certain special moments that we spent with our friends will come back to linger in our thoughts.

Miss Ruth Sims dishes out chili to three hungry Shakerites — Carky Maniaci, Ruth Ann Hurt, and Jane Cunat.

Pete Fredrix, Larry Aurbach, and Jim Van Baalen recall the year's events through the Social Council Scrapbook.

Many rush through lunch to the Social Room to play cards.

The Ely Gallery offers many interesting exhibitions. Toby Silverman and Carole Zolten stop to view the new display on their way home.

For a few minutes after school the parking lot is a hubbub of activity. By 3:45 it is marked by a deathly silence.

an insight into our school's achievements

Physical Facilities . . . Faced with a problem common to all schools, that of providing new rooms and equipment for a rapidly expanding student body, Shaker has mapped out a program of construction to enlarge and remodel the present high school. The original plant, which was erected in 1930, now provides four laboratories, two gyms, two auditoriums, a cafeteria, several playing fields, and a library shown at the right. Last year, in completion of the first part of the building project, social and music rooms were finished and opened for use. Next year, fourteen new classrooms will be added as Shaker takes another step to stay out in front in the race against overcrowding.

Academic Performance . . . In the picture at the left, several teachers are administering the Iowa Reading Test to a group of juniors. Shaker employs the time-honored formula of "test, teach, test" as the principle for its academic program. Also given during the year are Co-operative tests in English, math, history, science, and language. Shaker medians are nearly always above the median for all independent (private) schools and sometimes from 19 to 35 points above in percentile ranking. More detailed information on the teaching staff is given on page 128.

Another way Shaker teachers find out the results of their work is to talk to the alumni returning from college. Above, Mr. Wayne French is conversing with Steve Kutler, a 1953 graduate now attending Cornell.

and objectives

Student Guidance . . . Juvenile delinquency hits the front pages of the newspapers. It is the unusual. What does not hit the front pages are the operations of service clubs, which stress character and citizenship. At the right, Jay Slood and Peggy Yoelson watch over their protégé at the Hi-Y Orphans' Party. Another unpublished program is the guidance counsel which provides help and advice to students. Below, Mr. Senft, Shaker Guidance Co-ordinator, gives advice to Tom Wilson on his selection of college.

Health . . . Every Shaker student gets an annual physical checkup. Below, Bill Godley is weighed by Mr. I. J. Sonna. His growth is charted through all grades on the Wetzel Grid. He has a chance to develop his muscles in daily physical education classes and to flex them in any of the intramural and varsity sports.

Creative Opportunities . . . In the art room Sally Fullerton, Al Cohen, and Janice Rosenfeld are busily at work making puppets. Last year, students took four first prizes in the National Scholastic Art Contest. At Shaker, students have chances to create, invent, and build in practically every field in high school, in everything from classes to clubs.

SENIORS

THOSE were the highlights of student life. Here, graduating seniors Sue Fox, Sally Fullerton, and Bill Boardman congratulate each other after commencement exercises. As the year progresses, seniors get more and more sentimental and reminiscent. In this section, along with these senior portraits, fourteen of the ways a student might fall in love with Shaker are dramatized by the seniors.

SPORTS

ADDITION to a memorable senior year was the success of the Red Raiders' 1953-54 sports season. Backed by a spirited student body, the teams provided excitement and thrills, victories and championships. One of the outstanding teams of the year, or of any year in Shaker's history, was our wrestling team. Here, several wrestlers carry Coach "Zip" Zednik off in triumphant victory after becoming State Champions.

SOUTH 21 - 0

The Shaker High Red Raiders opened their 1953 Football season with a 21-0 victory over the South High Flyers. Dan Clowson, 175-pound fullback, led the Raider attack by scoring two touchdowns on runs of 13 and 26 yards. Stan Palevsky raced eight yards off tackle to climax the scoring for the day. Sarge Karch added all three extra points.

Spirit Sparks Raiders

EUCLID 14 - 13

A fine crowd turned out at Euclid's homecoming despite the 22-degree temperature. The first half was all Euclid, and the Panthers led at intermission time 13-0. Ken Watson, Euclid's All-League fullback, had scored all the points. An inspired Shaker team fought back in the third quarter. Tackle Dick Kramer recovered the kick-off on Euclid's 13 yard line. On the next play the Raiders scored on a pass from Korch to end Paul Balozs to make the score 13-7. Minutes later Pete Leone hopped on a bad pass from center on the Panthers' seven-yard line. Karch scored on a quarterback sneak to tie the game. Jock Doyle then attempted his first kick of an extra point and split the uprights to give Shaker a 14-13 victory.

MAPLE HEIGHTS 21 - 19

The Maple Heights game will long be remembered by Shaker fans. The Red Raiders led at halftime 7-0. Maple Heights came back in the third quarter to register two quick touchdowns and lead 13-7. Stan Palevsky gave Shaker the edge after he scored on a 50-yard pass play from Karch. With less than a minute remaining in the game, a Maple Heights half-back broke loose to score, giving the Mustangs a 19-14 advantage. It appeared the game was over. Then in a storybook ending, with only seconds remaining, Jack German snagged a pass from Sarge Karch on the 50-yard line and outran three defenders to give Shaker a thrilling 21-19 victory.

SHAW 0 - 7

Shaw High took the opening kick-off and marched 70 yards in six plays to a touchdown. Shaker, headed by game captain Nick Leone, then settled down to play excellent defensive football, but their offense bagged down once the Raiders moved within the Shaw 20-yard line. It was a heartbreaker to lose; a game that could have gone either way.

Jack Doyle, Raider end, leaps high in the air attempting to snag a long pass.

PARMA 21 - 19

Shaker spoiled Parma's Homecoming by spilling the Redmen 13-0. The Raiders controlled the game all the way. At intermission time Shaker led 7-0 as a result of Palevsky's seven-yard run. In the third period Doyle snagged a 21-yard aerial from Karch to complete the scoring. Shaker's coach, Jim Halderman, was presented the Parma Bowl Trophy following the Raiders' victory.

LAKEWOOD 19 - 33

The Red Raiders battled a powerful Lakewood team an even terms for the first half, but the Rangers' depth was too much for Shaker. Shaker's first score came on a 40-yard pass from Karch to end Jack Doyle, who made a sensational catch in the end zone. Later in the first half Palevsky took another pass from Karch and scampered 26 yards to give Shaker a 13-7 lead. In the third quarter the Rangers, headed by Bin Barta, broke loose to take a 33-13 lead before the Raiders scored their final six points on Karch's second T.D. pass to Palevsky.

Jack Nichols, All-Ohio fullback, led a powerful Canton Lehman team to a lopsided 32-7 victory over Shaker. Nichols put on a brilliant exhibition of running, passing, and kicking as he personally accounted for 20 points on two touchdowns and two field goals, one a 40-yard effort. The Raiders' lone score came on a 75-yard runback of an intercepted pass by Jack Fejes, a sophomore fullback.

Dan Clawson picks up yardage in the Euclid game. Number 65 is Shaker tackle Pete Leone.

A fighting Willoughby team took Ed McKernan's opening kickoff and marched 80 yards to a T.D. This seemed to be an incentive to the underdog Willoughby squad. Minutes later they pushed over another score to take a 13-0 lead at halftime. In the second half Shaker bounded back and tallied on a short pass from Karch to Polevsky. Karch converted and Shaker trailed 13-7. Time ran out with the Raiders deep in Willoughby territory. Final score 13-7.

CLEVELAND HEIGHTS 1 - 0 (forfeit)

An overflow crowd packed Hosford Field to witness the annual neighborhood duel between Heights and Shaker. The Raiders rose to the occasion and outplayed the heavily favored Tigers in a rough and tumble battle. Shaker compiled 18 first downs to six for Heights but had to settle for a 13-13 tie. Stan Palevsky scored Shaker's first T.D. on an eighty-yard run after Clawson had moved the ball deep into Heights territory with a 60-yard end sweep. Karch converted. Shaker's other touchdown was registered by Karch on a quarterback option play giving the Raiders a 13-6 lead. Heights pushed across their final tally late in the fourth quarter. Cleveland Heights, the Lake Erie League champions, were forced to forfeit all of their games by the score of 1-0 because of an ineligible player.

Jayvees Roll Up 116 Points to Opponents 65

The 1953 Jayvee football team, coached by Fred Heinlen and Bob Rice, compiled a fine record of five victories as against only two setbacks. The Raiders rolled up 116 points while limiting their opposition to 65 points. The Jayvees opened their season by trouncing Maple Heights 18-0. Fejes, Brown and Brenner each tallied for the Sophs. The following week the Raiders won their second straight game downing John Adams 20-6. Cleveland Heights broke the winning streak, handing Shaker a 32-12 drubbing. The Sophomores, paced by 130-pound George Brown, roared back the next week to dump a favored Show eleven by a narrow 12-6 margin. The Jayvees broke even in their final two clashes, losing to Lakewood and beating Euclid. The hustle and desire demonstrated by the Sophomores give promise of a strong varsity team in the future. The boys to look for on next year's varsity are Brown, Goodman, Fejes, and Friedman in the backfield; and Herringshaw, Holmes, Kohn, Dunn, Tamcins, and Blane in the line.

Record Crowds Spur Cagers to Captain Sarge Karch drives down court in the Garfield Heights game.

The 1953-54 Red Raider Basketball Team was the best squad since 1937. Their season record of 10 wins and 8 losses was only a part of their success. For three years the same boys had played together and gained the poise and experience which makes a good team. The student interest in this squad had developed over a three-year period to such a point that at almost every game there was standing room only. One of the most memorable victories of the campaign was the 78-52 shellacking that the Raiders handed to Cleveland Heights. The fact that it was Shaker's first victory over Heights in five years made it all the more enjoyable. The 60-55 victory over Shaw was the real high point of the season. Shaw, which had been undefeated in nine previous games, was a heavy favorite but the Shaker five, playing their finest game of the season, were the victors. The game was a see-saw battle until the closing minutes when Shaker pulled away to win. Unfortunately on several occasions the Raiders slumped in the final period and lost heartbreakers to Euclid, Collinwood, and Lakewood.

The team was well balanced this year with a strong reserve bench. Bob Branand was the team's leading scorer with 179 points which were enough to place him second in the L.E.L. scoring race. Bob's 34 points against Parma shattered a school record. Hank Dimlich, Sarge Karch, Fred Bentoff, and Paul Balazs rounded out the first team. Dimlich and Karch were the set shot specialists and Bentoff and Balazs were proficient at drive-in shots. Jack Doyle, Jay Slaad, and Bill Cohen were the other seniors to see action. Next year's varsity will have Earl Seidman, Charlie Burger, Dick Lazzaro, and Joel Halmes returning.

The Sophomore Basketball Team displayed plenty of promise this year as they posted 8 wins in 16 games. Five of their 8 losses were by a 4-point margin or less. The main job of the Jayvee quintet was to practice the fundamentals of the game so that they would be able to help the varsity squad in their junior and senior years. Under the watchful eye of Coach Sanna, the Jayvees, through hard work and determination, improved steadily throughout the season.

Next year's varsity should be strengthened by such boys as Dennis Goodman, Corky Maniaci, Walt Lloyd, Mike Blane, Chuck Kahn, and Dennis Tamcsin.

Shaker Mermen Cop State Crown

Bob Perry splashes to another record.

The Red Raider Swimming Team came from behind to win the school's first State Swimming Championship at the Ohio State University's pool. The 200-yard free style relay team made up of Chuck Armington, Dick Wilson, Sherry Falsgraf, and Bob Perry broke a state record in the final event of the meet to clinch the triumph. Bob Perry and Dan Clawson were the other first place winners.

Swimmers Splash to 12

The Shaker Swimming Team captained by Bob Perry splashed to 12 straight dual meet victories this season. The 48-27 victory over University School, the city champions, was perhaps the most exciting of the dual victories. This year's team was the best in Shaker's long history of fine swimming teams. After placing second in the City Meet, the mermen swam to a second place in the Bowling Green Relays which featured the top teams in Ohio as well as Michigan. The team that defeated the Raiders was East Grand Rapids, who for the last six years has been Michigan State Champions. The L.E.L. meet held at Euclid High was an easy victory for Shaker as the Raiders dethroned Cleveland Heights. In the District Meet, Shaker again proved to be the toughest team in this area by edging Lakewood 80-79 for first place.

Dan Clawson displays championship form.

Besides the Raiders' record number of victories, a score of individual records were established this season. Bob Perry, one of the nation's top high school swimmers, broke records nearly every time he hit the water. His record times were 24.1 seconds for the 50; 18.9 seconds for the 40; 2:03:9 seconds for the 200; 1:14:9 seconds for the 120-yard individual medley; and Bob's time of 1:38:9 seconds for the 150-yard individual medley is on unofficial state record. Perry broke the state record for the 100-yard freestyle with a time of 52.8 seconds. Shaker's 200-yard medley relay team consisting of Dick Wilson, Tam Wilson, Sherry Falsgraf, and Bob Perry was clocked at 1:40:3, only .3 of a second off the state record. Kavoch, Corell, and Broderick broke the 150-yard medley record with a time of 1:26 seconds. Dan Clawson, the State's outstanding diver, won the City, L.E.L., and District Meets this year in addition to the State title.

Coach Paul Stark, after watching his teams finish second for the last few years, finally realized his ambition when the Raiders bagged the State Crown. Coach Stark played an important part in the development of this year's squad and deserves the congratulations of every Shakerite.

Coach Zip Zednick.

Before a capacity crowd at John Hay High School, Shaker High's Wrestling Team topped 22 other schools from all parts of the state to capture the first state championship in Shaker's history. Don Brown was the Raider's only individual champion taking the 138-pound title. Narty Eisenberg, 103, and Henry Danaceau, 127, both lost close decisions and placed second in the state. Nick Leone, 165, lost on a referee's decision. Captain Pete Leone placed third in the heavyweight bracket. The victory was a real team effort. The 10 pins recorded in the preliminaries proved to be the margin of victory for the grapplers.

Shaker's wrestlers compiled the finest season record in the school's history by winning all nine dual meets. Aided by 29 pins, 38 decisions, and seven draws in ninety bouts, the Raiders totaled 273 points and limited their opposition to 62.

Varsity Wrestling

The Red Raiders opened their campaign by drubbing Benedictine 32-5, and the following week they beat Lakewood 29-8. Collinwood was their next victim 42-0. It was soon established that Shaker was the team to beat and therefore each meet was a tough one. The boys lived up to their reputation by dumping John Marshall 30-6. West High received the most crushing defeat in scholastic wrestling in years by losing 48-0. The Raiders recorded nine pins in 10 matches. The matmen then beat West Tech 28-6 and Maple Heights 25-8. The Euclid meet was a thriller from beginning to end. Euclid was up for this one and Shaker trailed 17-10 with but two matches left. Nick Leane decisioned his previously undefeated opponent and Captain Pete Leane won the meet, the city championship, and the cheers of 1200 fans when he pinned his man to give Shaker an 18-17 victory. The Raiders concluded their season with a 21-12 victory over John Adams.

The boys that made up the first team this year were Norty Eisenberg, 103; Jerry Weiss, 112; George Brown, 120; Henry Danaceau, 127; Howard Danaceau, 133; Dan Brown, 138; Stan Palevsky, 145; Chuck Henzy, 154; Nick Leane, 165; and Pete Leane, 185.

Coach Zednick's excellent job of coaching has developed Shaker into a wrestling powerhouse. A tribute to Zip's success is the fact that over 68 boys made up the squad this year.

Tennis Team Wins 4 out of 5 Matches

Coach John Harbaurt's Tennis Team, for the first time in six years, failed to win the L.E.L. championship, although they finished a close second. After four straight triumphs over Cleveland Heights, Shaw, Parma, and Euclid, the racqueteers lost their final match of the season to Lakewood by a narrow 3 to 2 score.

First: Gordon Glaser, Mike Gavlack, Jim Breitweg, John Spivack, Coach Bob Rice. Second: Earl Seidman, Art Bankhurst, Sid Wolfe, Captain Dick Clokey, Howie Filston.

The 1953 Cross Country Team, coached by Bob Rice, finished a strong second in the L.E.L. Although there is little glory attached to Cross Country, the team worked out faithfully each night and were rewarded with three first places in five dual meets. Captain Dick Clokey was the outstanding performer, placing seventh in the district meet and 33rd in the state meet out of a field of 175 of Ohio's best.

Coach Bob Rice's track team, boasting 14 returning lettermen, recorded an outstanding season. Headed by Captain Bill Boardman, the team was exceptionally well balanced in both the track and field events. Boardman, Tom Friedman, Jim Breitweg, Conrad Spoke, and Chick Tate handled the sprints, while John Spivack, Dick Clokey, Howard Filston and Sid Wolfe were the distance men. Dick Slowey, Paul Balazs and Art Bankhurst were the high jumper, hurdler and pole vaulter respectively. Bob Branand and Tom Green were the weight men.

to Athletic Year

Sporting new uniforms and new faces at six positions, the 1954 Red Raider baseball team had a highly successful season. With only three returning lettermen, Rod Smith, Dick Morrison, and Don Shagrin, Coach Fred Heinlen had to draw from the following bays to complete his starting lineup: Stan Palevsky, George Brawn, Jim Camella, Tom Camella, Dick Lazzara, Neil Rusin, Ron Lustig, Mike Black, Tom Jirus, Corky Manici, and Gil Singerman.

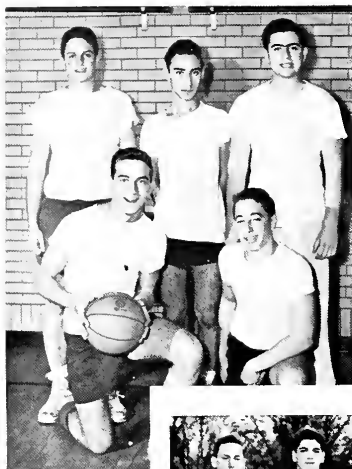

Rod Smith, utilizing his blazing fast ball and sharp-breaking curve, distinguished himself as the district's finest southpaw hurler and Shaker's best pitcher in many years.

Offensively this year Shaker lacked a long ball hitter but managed to get enough doubles and singles to compile an excellent season record.

Girls' Sports

Fencing can be fun—Miss Richards demonstrates the lunge.

Miss Michaels corrects the form of her swimming class.

Something new was added to the girls' physical education program this year. In a novel experiment, Shaker's young gym teachers decided to adopt a college type athletic schedule to the high school level. Each girl was given the opportunity to choose the sports in which she wished to participate. The only requirements were that she sign up for one team sport, one individual sport, and one semester of modern dance. The popular acceptance of this experiment has guaranteed that it will become a permanent part of Shaker's athletic program.

Girls' Leaders

Besides assisting Miss Burkett with her classes and refereeing intramural games, the members of the Girls' Leaders Club found time to instruct gym classes at Onaway School and supervise elementary school students on Saturday mornings. In November, fifteen girls were installed at a dinner served by Mr. Fred Heinlen and his skillful Varsity "S" Club waiters. Maryalice Loudon and her mother held the first Alumnae Tea at their home during the Christmas holidays. The second semester found the club up to its neck in projects. Social Chairman Barbara Douglas was in charge of the successful "Candy Cotillion," and soon afterwards the girls sponsored a playday in which ten high schools participated. The Leaders concluded their 1954 activities with the annual Awards Tea, honoring the girls who were outstanding in sports.

Nearly every Thursday afternoon, patient Swimming Leaders voluntarily guarded a pool full of water-loving small fry, in addition to their regular duties in the swimming classes. The girls also purchased club jackets which were immediately borrowed by envious classmates. In the spring the Leaders sponsored the open house after the Sharcs' pageant and later entertained the Gym Leaders and Sharcs' Club with a splash party and dinner.

Sharcs

Long hours of practice and hard work paid off for the members of the Sharcs' Club. Who can forget this year's pageant, complete with swaying palms, an island princess, crafty pirates, and a story book ending? The girls even included a few of Coach Paul Stark's swimming team in their numbers. And to prove that Sharcs never tire of the water, Suzy Creech, Betty Harwell, Joanne Faragher, and Sally Manderson also entered the A.A.U. synchronized swimming event.

"We Know Not of the Word Defeat For Shaker is our Name"

The explosive response of a loyal student body to seven peppy cheerleaders carried our teams through victories and defeats. Remember how we traveled half-way across Cleveland to watch a game and then returned to freeze in the parking lot until the football bus returned? And there were the coaches' zany cheers at a pep assembly and the trips to Columbus for the state meets. Memories such as these make it all the harder for the senior cheerleaders to break up their squad in June.

Come on kids, let's really yell!

We won!!!!

Intramural Highlights

By earning their varsity letters, the twenty-four smiling athletes on the next page achieved the ambition of every Shaker girl. Marlyn Speer, Sue Sifritt, and Sue Edwards had the distinction of winning their letters in their sophomore year, but perseverance and patience paid off for the others who were honored in their junior year.

A letter-winner obtains five hundred points towards her "S" by participating in intramural games, joining Sharcs', Bowling or Rifle Clubs, or by being chosen for varsity and all-star teams. A serious athlete may accumulate one thousand points and win a gold cup.

For those girls who have the time, the intramural program provides keen competition and offers an excellent chance to practice athletic techniques learned in class.

Brahms and Handel

Inspired by their beautiful new quarters, the A Cappella Choir gave many fine performances during the year. Near Christmastime they sang at Public Square, at Halle's, and at the Christmas Concert they sang carols, hymns, and choruses from "The Messiah." In the spring they represented Shaker at the Lake Erie League Choir Festival at Parma. The magnificent Brahms "Requiem" was given for the spring concert. The A Cappella added much to the musical scene at Shaker.

Chaucer's character Chaunticleer, the rooster, was an early riser; so is the sixteen-voice choral group known as the Chanticleers (modern spelling). Working on their harmony during odd hours, mostly early, the group mastered a wide repertoire. Among the activities of the Chanticleers were performances for school concerts and community groups such as the Rotary and Kiwanis Clubs.

Glee Clubs Founded for Beginning Singers

Shakerites interested in singing, but with little time to spare, could belong to one of the three glee clubs this year. Meeting only twice a week with Mr. Ellis, these groups song popular and semi-classical music. They combined to present a selection of carols at the Christmas assembly program.

Orchestra Presents Varied Program

A string ensemble of Laurel Joseph, Ronnie Lorentz, and Mike Ban practices for the instrumental contest.

As the din of tuning instruments ceased, and the audience became quiet, Mr. Hammond stepped to the podium and the Orchestra presented the opening number of their Christmas concert. After the holidays, the group merged with groups of other schools at the Lake Erie League Orchestra Festival. Members of the organization entered the Cleveland Instrumental Music Contest singly and in ensembles. In the spring they gave a concert along with the junior high bands and orchestra.

Band Stirs

Led by Drum Major Ben Fisco, nine major-ettes, and Acrobat Janice Suid, the bond gave a colorful half-time show at every football game. Pep rallies were livened by the sprightly marches and impromptu "Dragnet" music from the band in the balcony. After the marching season, when the high tosses and the boogie-on-the-backstep could be forgotten, the bond

Armchair Travelers Visit the World

Canada, Europe, Washington D.C.—these places were only a few of those brought to life by the members of the Travel Club. Mr. Lourdes, a Cleveland Heights English teacher, showed the slides he had taken on their choir's European journey. Mr. William Soul spoke of tours he had conducted to Washington, and Finny Bloomfield told of his bicycle trip to Canada. The second semester was highlighted by a group of foreign exchange students, who discussed the differences in education between their homeland and America. The year ended with a final get-together for the graduating seniors, who will be doing quite a bit of traveling themselves in the spring.

The United Nations deserves the attention and support of all Americans. Realizing this fact, the Junior Council on World Affairs spent much of its time discussing the subject. These discussions culminated in a debate on the question, "Should The United States Favor the Admission of Red China to the United Nations?" Some club members portrayed a mock meeting of the Security Council, while others represented the school at a model United Nations at Western Reserve University. As in past years, a high honor was bestowed upon one member who was selected to represent Shaker High in a student tour of the United Nations in New York City.

"Qui est le coupable?" This was the question of many mystified onlookers at the French Club's presentation of "Les Meurtres Chez Le Coiffure," a delightful comedy concerning murder. During the year club members also enjoyed French cartoons, played various French games, and, through several speakers, became familiar with life in Paris. Spanish Club Officers

President Jay Davis tells other officers Sue Fox, Dick Sanders, Jaon Ilove, and Jane Killpack about the customs of Colombia.

Perhaps the Latin temperament is a contagious thing, for it burst out in the colorful program planned by the Spanish Club. Sally Cawan told of Spanish life from her first-hand observations of life in Mexico, and a Shaker graduate, Phyllis Maat, who had lived in South America, showed slides she had taken during her stay. Highlight of the year for the club was their Fiesta, when the piñata, crammed with gifts, nuts, and candy, was broken. For those Spanish students interested in furthering their knowledge of Spanish tradition and custom, the club served an excellent purpose.

P.A. Staff Brings News to Shaker

Those cheery voices you heard over the P.A. in the morning belonged to an early-rising group of students known as the P.A. Staff. Announcers tried out for their positions and were chosen for the way their voices sounded through a "mike." They took turns keeping Shakerites "up" on the latest news around school.

Actors Experiment In Drama Workshop

Dick Woody demonstrates stage strangling on Maggie Houk, as Nancy Stromberg, Dennis Kelly, Arthur Greenbaum, Sally Brown, and Toby Glassman watch.

Sounds of thumps, screams, and slaps emanating from the basement second period were not products of the wrestling team, but of the Drama Workshop. The aspiring dramatists practiced stage techniques such as falling, fighting, and strangling, and experimented with improvisation, choral speaking, and dramatic reading. By practicing the art of stage make-up on each other, the group gained valuable experience.

Some students tried their hands at directing, and produced two one-act plays, "The Twelve Pound Look" and "The Valiant," which were given before the student body and other groups. Members of the Workshop were recommended on the basis of their work in drama last year. They gave up a period a day for this non-credit course.

Cast members of "The Twelve Pound Look" are Alice Saunders, Harlan Bigelow, Don Viny, Donna Stillwell, and director Melinda Shuster.

Thespians Star

The hours spent looking for weird props for the stage settings, the drudgery of memorizing pages of lines, and the anxiety of opening night are all part of the background of every Thespian. Troup 815 of the National Thespians Society is made up of students who have worked at least fifty hours on school productions. This year they helped produce three plays: the comedy-drama "Letters to Lucerne," the murder mystery "Night Must Fall," and another in the spring. Two initiations were held for new members—after the second and third plays. Early in the fall the troupe entertained the Drama Production Club with a picnic, and at Christmas time they held their second annual reunion.

In a room echoing with the crash of rifles and permeated with the smell of gunpowder, the Boys' and Girls' Rifle Clubs held their weekly shooting sessions. The fast improving sharpshooters learned the tricks of riflery from the prone, sitting, kneeling, and standing positions, and used their skill to win the awards of the National Rifle Association. "Patience and steadiness," said Mr. Mowrey, "are rewarding by-products of the time we spend on the range."

The sound of scattering pins resounded throughout the Kinsmon-Lee Alleys every Thursday afternoon when the Girls' and Boys' Bowling Clubs met for their weekly sessions. Members competed among themselves for honors, rolling for the high single game, high average, and highest series scores. Teams of the Bowling Club held a tournament, and a "varsity" of the five best bowlers in the club represented Shaker in the Cleveland City Tournament. Girls and boys bowled independently during the season, but occasionally an interclub contest was held to heighten interest.

The Varsity "S" Club, composed of boys who have won their letters as players or managers of varsity sports, was reactivated this year. The boys concentrated on boosting school spirit for athletic events. At the initiation dinner of the Girls Leaders' Club, fifteen of the lettermen were put to work waiting on table. Members of the club served as ushers at the various school functions. Later in the year Varsity "S" held a hayride as part of their own social program.

Girls Enjoy Modern Dance

Practicing dance routines of their own creation, the Modern Dance Club met weekly to improve their form. The club held a workshop here this year and invited representatives from ten schools for a luncheon and a day of dancing. Modern Dance sent six representatives to a physical education conference in early spring. Miss Alice Richards and the members of the club believe symbolic dancing is good physical training in grace and balance, as well as worthwhile entertainment.

Future Airmen Study Aviation

Aviation is a subject that is gaining steadily in importance year by year, one that attracts many young men. The Aeronautics club at Shaker consists of a group of boys who meet regularly to discuss the opportunities and science of the subject and to see movies. Later in the year the members took a trip to the airport. During the second semester the club combined with the Science Club, and they presented joint programs of science and aviation.

The action of a static machine fascinates budding scientists.

Voltmeters, electron tubes, and microphones are often scattered over the tables in room 304 during a meeting of the Science Club. The active program of the year included a demonstration on the use of electricity for shock treatments, a trip to Brush Laboratories to see the process of growing artificial crystals, and a lecture on electronic calculating machines by a representative from I.B.M. The club provided our future chemists and engineers with worthwhile professional orientation.

Do you know the general opinion on psychosomatic medicine or the cause of taurochalmia? Medical jargon such as this became familiar to the members of the Pre-Med Club who met monthly for well-planned program meetings. Among the guest speakers of the club was Dr. Charles Bowers of St. Luke's Hospital, who lectured on the field of surgery and medicine in general. A panel discussion on mental health was a feature of the year's activities, as were the field trips to neighboring clinics and hospitals.

Gristmill Covers the Year

As the deadline approached, we of the 1954 Gristmill staff wondered if there would ever be any material to place between the covers. We hope that the midnight sessions of copy-writing proved valuable, and that the changes in the organization of the book were helpful to you. An improvement on last year's All-American book is the addition of a general and advertising index as an aid to finding pictures of yourself and your friends. In 148 pages we have tried to capture the spirit, activities, and student achievements that have made this year a great one to be a part of and to write about.

Under the supervision of its hard-working editors, the Shakerite has continued to let Shaker students know what their friends are doing and thinking. By dint of almost superhuman effort, the staff produced a paper once every three weeks, instead of every four as formerly. A new system of cub reporters was inaugurated as a means of training new people to take over the jobs of the regulars. Mr. Burton Randall was always available to advise and assist writers in distress.

Y-Teen Promotes

Realizing that friendship is desired by everyone, Y-Teen started the year with a Court Party for all-girls. After Club Week, the Y-Teen program swung into action with various activities, including a talk by Miss Beatrice Vincent on good grooming. A special board, composed of students, mothers, and faculty, was organized for the first time this year as a co-ordinating and planning body. Evidence of the fun enjoyed through the year was the enthusiastic turnout for the annual spring picnic. This affair ended the club activities of the year, but officers were installed for next year's Junior and Senior Chapters, and new work immediately was resumed.

Y-Teen Urges Fellowship

Connie Lewis and her friends wrap their Christmas projects, while Nancy Williams gladly accepts a cookie from Miss MacDonald.

The world is full of people who talk about fellowship. Y-Teen does something about it! The children at "Friendly Inn" will long remember the small but thoughtful gifts sent to them by the Sophomore Chapter. Junior members brought happiness to one less fortunate family which otherwise would have been unable to afford a Christmas. Many Filipinos are now raising crops from the seeds sent by Senior Y-Teen. All the Shaker Chapters contributed to a fund for a fellowship scarf to be sent to the Netherlands in a gesture of friendship. Y-Teen has done its job!

Sophs Learn Hi-Y Creed

To help its members reach their goal of fellowship and Christian living is the main purpose of Hi-Y. The sophomore chapter spent much of the first semester becoming familiar with the ideals and purposes of their organization. Because of the rising interest in the club, an extensive membership drive was held later in the year to increase the chapter enrollment before the solemn induction ceremony. This was held at one of the neighboring churches where the boys learned of the devotional aspect of Hi-Y life.

Service to the community, service to the school, service to the organization—the Junior Chapter of Hi-Y dedicated itself to all! By distributing posters for the community chest, Hi-Y helped awaken Shaker's residents to the great necessity for their contributions. The students of the school can thank these boys for ushering at the many football games and selling the popular license tags. The other chapters of Hi-Y are grateful for the help of the Juniors with the annual Fall Ball.

Senior Hi-Y Spreads Good Will

Good will in its highest form, bringing happiness to those less fortunate, was displayed by The Senior Chapter of Hi-Y at their annual Christmas Party for orphans. The laughter on the faces of thirty homeless children as they anxiously opened their presents was well worth the time and money spent in preparation. Wishing to be of further help to mankind, the club made a donation to the World Service Organization. After three years of active participation in Hi-Y life, these boys have truly learned the meaning of unselfish living.

The sophomore class started off their year with a bang by holding an informal party in the girls' gym. The newcomers quickly got into the swing of things as they began to support wholeheartedly school functions and teams. The sophomore boys showed strong class spirit by producing winning Jayvee football and basketball squads. The girls also fielded strong varsity teams which a few times during the year even upset more experienced upperclass squads.

Judy Cozzens, social chairman, Jim Haff, vice-president, John Glick, president, Dick Sanders, treasurer, Jane Killpack, secretary.

Junior Class Officers

The Junior year was one of compensations, as is all life, according to Emerson. There were the isosceles triangles, provisions of the Constitution, and Thoreau's Walden. But, the class party and the Junior Prom counter-balanced these problems. A new idea was instituted with the off-campus roller-skating party. The juniors again demonstrated their originality by their "Dutch" theme for the Junior Prom. This year's Junior Class has shown the school that it has the ability and the spirit to carry on; they look forward to the coming year of responsibilities.

ADMINISTRATION

THOSE were the juniors and sophomores, Shaker's administrators in future years. This year's leaders are portrayed in the following section, and whenever possible we have tried to show how your officers, working with the faculty and the parents, have shared the responsibilities of administering a democratic organization—Shaker Heights High School. On the opposite page Sarge Karch expresses an opinion at a meeting of the Combined Executive Officers of the Student and Social Councils.

Advisers Manage Study Hall

Shaker's Honor Study Halls are supervised exclusively by a few selected advisers, chosen by the Central Committee on the basis of capability, integrity, and leadership. These advisers not only promote a casual and friendly atmosphere within the study hall, but also discipline the students when privileges are abused or conduct is unbecoming to this society. The Honor Study Hall System stresses responsibility and honor of the individual.

Assistants Aid Deans

Gaining experience for themselves and helping others, the Library and Dean's Assistants worked quietly behind the scenes. In Miss Hollon's office, girls answered the telephone, welcomed visitors, and ran errands. A volunteer Library Assistant was present each period in order to check the arrival and departure of students using the library.

Demerit Panel

When students at Shaker err beyond a certain point, they are summoned before the Demerit Panel, a board consisting of four seniors and two juniors. These students, chosen for their integrity and fine character, offer the offender the privilege of being tried before his own classmates. The Demerit Panel has used its power wisely and fairly in rendering some very difficult decisions.

Student Panels Judge Offenders

Central Committee

Just decisions for honor study hall offenders in an atmosphere of a courtroom are of primary importance to these six seniors who make up the Central Committee. With the increased school enrollment, the jurisdiction of this year's committee extends over more numerous and larger study halls than ever before. In addition, many qualified applicants have had to remain on a waiting list 'til a vacancy appeared. Due to these facts, the Central Committee cannot afford to show any partiality or leniency in trying or expelling offenders. A special project of this year's board has been a revisal of the constitution and regulations of the organization to meet the new needs.

Student Council Practices Democracy

By organizing the activities of the school, backing welfare drives, and providing Shoker with an efficient form of student government, the Student Council served the Shoker community. Among the improvements adopted by the Student Council this year were a point system used to regulate the number of individual student offices, the re-establishment of the Lost and Found Department and a revisal of the parking lot policies.

Starting the year, the Social Council met jointly with the Student Council to present their ideas concerning the use of the new Social Room. These ideas were formulated in a statement of policies which were adopted by the student body and are now in use. Besides the numerous affairs during the year such as the Football Dance and the Starlight Stomp, the Social Council sponsored a Christmas Party for the faculty and their children. Will power melted as the students gazed at the cookies and cakes at the Social Council Bake Sale. The proceeds from this and other projects were pooled for a phonograph in the Social Room.

Officers Seated: Dan Brown, Jane Peirce, Eleanor Rosene, Louis Bloomfield, Gaynell Smith. Standing: Alan Daus, Sarge Karch.

"Roving" Boosters Tom Wilson, Pete Garson, Mike Wipper, and Bob Ferguson are the first to receive armbands from Booster President Dan Brown.

New Badges For Boosters

Bright red armbands, marked by two stripes for captains and one for regulars, identify this year's Booster Force. With this innovation came a new system, introducing a booster captain for each period. These captains, known as "roving" boosters, supervise their periods to see that all duties are carried out in an orderly and polite fashion. Booster President Dan Brown has had to enlarge his force to insure safety in the new wings and enlarged parking lots. These students give up their free periods to keep Shaker's halls quiet and to direct traffic during the mad rush between classes.

STAFF

Miss Louise Hallon
Dean of Girls

Shaker's staff of 67 teachers and supervisors provides a pupil-teacher ratio of 15 to 1. This makes possible a more personal relationship than most schools have. Besides their regular assignments, teachers are involved in clubs, sports, the social program and help for students preparing for college board exams. All of them have work beyond the Bachelor's degree, with 47 having their Master's and two their Ph.D.'s.
